For the past eleven years, Firoozeh Dumas has traveled the U.S. reminding audiences, through storytelling and humor, of our shared humanity. This September, she visits USF to provide insight on being an Iranian immigrant in America. Her talk, “Why We Tell Our Stories,” supports this year’s Common Reading Experience, The Complete Persepolis, a graphic novel by Marjane Satrapi. Dumas is author of Funny in Farsi: A Memoir of Growing up Iranian in American, and Laughing without an Accent: Adventures of a Global Citizen.
