

BLOOD WORK

A Tale of Medicine & Murder in the Scientific Revolution

Holly Tucker

September 6 - CWY 206 - 6 PM

Reception and book signing to follow.

"Ingenious, engaging, and disquieting... Tucker masterfully narrates a rich tale about the competing passions of faith, politics, and knowledge." —Michael Washburn, Boston Globe

BLOOD WORK

A TALE OF MEDICINE
& MURDER

IN THE SCIENTIFIC REVOLUTION

HOLLY TUCKER

Holly Tucker, professor in the Center for Biomedical Ethics & Society at Vanderbilt University, traces a fascinating scientific battle in 17th-century Europe, when the French and the English were in a medical arms race to solve the mystery of successful blood transfusions. Tucker will explore human nature and mortality in the context of medical history in a talk named after her book, Blood Work: A Tale of Murder & Medicine in the Scientific Revolution.
